Welcome to our European Holidays

Since re-launching Leisuretime by Toureasy in 2022, we have focused on building our increasingly popular UK programme of day trips, short breaks and holidays. Recently, though, more and more of you have been asking us about a return to a more extensive range of holidays to Europe - and this brochure is our answer...

Over the last few months, we have pulled out all the stops to create a holiday programme for 2025 that we hope you will love. Unsurprisingly, this means we have chosen to focus on the destinations and types of holidays that you have been asking for and we really hope that we have got it right.

In deciding which trips to offer you, we have created holidays that:

Take you to destinations that we know you have been asking us for.

Feature hotels in great locations that really 'work' for your holiday itinerary.

Deliver a fabulous overall holiday experience, often through great added value extras and inclusions.

Needless to say, we have also made sure that all our European holidays come with our usual great value price tag, backed up by our Leisuretime Price Promise, so that you can be confident that you can't buy better elsewhere.

So, thank you to everyone who has helped us put this new holiday programme together and we hope you enjoy it. Bon voyage!
